The second meeting of the Club was held this evening in Unity Hall about 35 members being present.

At 6.45 an excellent roast beef dinner was served by caterer Myers ~~and~~ during which excellent music was rendered by an orchestra under the lead of Prof. F. Fletcher. We are fortunate in having two such efficient members as supper director O.B. Ruggles and music director F. Fletcher

After the supper Pres. Loring called the meeting to order and the records of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Reid for the nominating committee proposed the present list of officers and Executive Committee for election at the annual meeting in March.

Mr. E. Norman Hunt was elected a member making our membership 83.

Upon motion it was Voted, to express to Mr. Myers, the caterer of the evening, our appreciation of the supper.

One of the orchestra (whose services were given to the club) was Mr. Benj. F. Hinds of Stoneham, Principal of the Washington School of Boston, and a member of the Unitarian Church of Stoneham. Pres. Loring without previous warning called on Mr. Hinds to speak to us which he did in his usual happy vein wishing us success and prosperity.

Our fellow club member Mr. Horace Brown was called on for a few words and spoke to us as a resident of Reading and an attendant of the Christian Union Church for 40 years. After speaking for about ten minutes regarding the history of railroads, telephones &c for the past 40 years Mr. Brown moved and it was Voted, That the Club through its secretary congratulate our associate, Mr. Wm. F. Spinney, on Mch. 8 on his attaining in good health, the age of 89 years. This was by a unanimous rising vote.

Pres. Loring introduced as the principal speaker of the evening, Rev. Chas. W. Casson, pastor of the Roslindale Unitarian Church, who said that in the past the backbone of Unitarian Churches but that Religion was a man size job.

Mr. Casson has been 3 years when he organized a Men's Club of 60 members with a limit of 200. In five months they reached that limit and had to build a parish house to accommodate them.

Upon completing the parish house at a cost of $25,000, the limit of membership was placed at 350, which was reached in 10 days and another waiting list established.

How was this successful club established?

1st He realized the necessity of a Men's club for such a club is not a luxury but a necessity to a live church.

2d Waited until the time was ripe to organize.

3d A club must develope a leader.

4 Must plan for a big club and start to make a big club.

5 Must discuss the biggest subjects by the biggest men and not confine itself to religious topics. His club has had such speakers as Prof. Jenkins, Dr. Nasmyth but only one clergyman in 2 years.

6 Must adopt the Democratic principle. Democracy of speech and effort.

7 Efficiency of organization as in all big business, which means plenty of working committees, viz

1 Music Committee
2 Program Committee
3 Social Committee
4 Membership "
5 Publicity " " , newspaper reports, etc.
6 Ticket " " to sell tickets etc.
7 Calling " to call on sick members.
8 Supper " in full charge.

8 Have our big enterprise a year to work for, a minstrel show, musical show, fair, etc. for which appoint a committee at the first meeting each year.

9 Develope the social spirit. Not remove the table cloths or tables: Have own club song sheet; stein song, etc: Have own club orchestra: Have club male quartette, etc.

10 Necessary to keep at it forever; work to have each meeting better than the one before.

Have the Club founded on Religious Service: be the junior member of the firm, "God & Sons, Unlimited". In such a mens' club is power for good immensely greater than the power of individuals.

The speaker was greeted with enthusiastic applause and was tended a rising vote of thanks by all.

Mr. A. N. Howes of the Club was called on to address the club and spoke with fervor urging the club to work earnestly in the cause of local charity to aid the poor of our town.

The hour being late the club adjourned.

The subject for the evening was National Preparedness and both speakers took that for their theme, emphasizing particularly the need of food preparedness and not speaking on the military side of the matter. Mr. Carr speaking for about an hour and Mr. Ellis for 20 minutes, both addresses being full of interest and the highest patriotism.

Mr. A. Neville Hows spoke for a quarter of an hour and on motion of Hon. H. S. Madin a rising vote of thanks was given the speaker.

The meeting was enthusiastic and the new present paid close, interested attention to our guests of the evening.

The last supper and meeting of the Club for the season was held in Unity Hall this evening about 30 being present.

Supper was served by Calvin Myers at 6.30 and at 7.30 the meeting was called to order by the President.

Upon request of the President, Dr. Newton of the Congregational Church, who was present as a guest, addressed the club, and expressed his appreciation of the "Good Fellowship" that had prevailed at the union services the past winter.

The President then called upon our guest, Dr. Pottenger, Medical Officer at Camp Pinnacle, (the Rifle Range) who expressed his appreciation of the courtesies that had been extended to him by the citizens of Reading, and told us of the high standard of health prevailing among the men at the Camp.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. Conrad F. Radlin, our fellow club member, gave a most eloquent address on the part that imagination has and is to play in the winning the war.

Our secretary feels he can not express his appreciation of this address better than is stated in the following extract from The Chronicle in its report of this meeting,"

> The subject was a striking one, and the handling of it masterful. There was not a dull moment in the time allotted to the speaker. His analysis of the German mind was keen and searching and his argument for the superiority of the Anglo-Saxon and the Latin races in the imaginative realm was most convincing. Dr. Wadlin's address was a fitting close to a season of splendid programs. There has been nothing better in Reading for many a day.

In a few fitting remarks the president expressed his appreciation of the interest of the club members in these meetings, and hoped that upon the re-opening of the work of the club "next" fall that even more interest would be shown and that the members would attend in larger numbers.

After a rising vote of thanks to Dr. Wadlin, the meeting adjourned

The first club meeting of the season was planned to be a public meeting in the church in the interest of the drive for the United War Work Service Fund but the peace news of the day changed it to an open public meeting in Security Hall and it was made a part of the Toronto official Victory celebration.

About 400 were present notwithstanding the counter attraction of the parade and general out-door jollification.

President Loring presided and on the platform were Capt. Stafford of the U.S. Navy, Lt. Jaquith his Aide, Ensign John A. Loring, Bruce Lumsden of the American Expeditionary Force just back from the battle front, Rev. Dr. Newton, Rev. F. M. Holt, Rev. M. F. Hand, members of the Board of Selectmen, several officers of the Reading Company of State Guards, naval men and officers of the Club.

The meeting opened by the singing of America, Miss Louise D. Little at the piano, Mr. Ralph Bancroft cornet, Mr. John H. Foster leader of the chorus.

Invocation was offered by Rev. F. M. Holt, and after singing of several patriotic songs Mr. Bancroft sounded the call to the colors and Sir Knights, Miss Eleanor Kuhn came on the stage with the Flag which was received

The Sing was led by the Leading of the white Miss Lenoir L. Morris sang especially the Starlight Prayer.

Our Fellow club member, Dr. Howard S.
Nudin made a stirring plea for leading subject for the New York Church Fund. Also that began that day.

We closed the order of the evening (Rev.) Howard
Jess Williams Overseas Secretary, G.M.C.A. Education Work, formerly pastor of the Lutheran Church at Concord, N.H., who had just returned from France New York gave a strong and eloquent address, telling some of his experiences on the battlefront and his conditions in France and Belgium and earnestly pleaded for a generous subscription to the Fund.

Another song was sung and after a few words of explanation of the meeting by Rev.
Loring, and a vote of thanks to the speakers
the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr.
Holt of the Baptist Church, what is considered to have been one of our most inspiring meetings was brought to a close.

The second meeting of the season was held this evening in Unity Hall, between 30 & 40 being present with Pres. Loring in the chair.

An excellent supper was provided by caterer Myers and then Pres. Loring called upon Mr. A. Newell Howes for his views on the financial outlook as affecting the question of the erection of our new Church. Mr. Howes expressed himself as heartily in accord with the new church project but advised waiting a short while for the return of normal business conditions and said he felt the utmost confidence that when the time came to build that the funds would be easily obtained.

A short season of singing patriotic songs under the leadership of Mr. John W. Webster, with Miss Jennie B. Parker, our organist at the piano, both of whom volunteered their services much to the pleasure of those present.

Rev. Oscar B. Hawes, pastor of the West Newton Unitarian Church, was introduced by Pres. Loring as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Hawes was a Unitarian Overseas secretary of Y.M.C.A., returning last month after serving eight months with the 4th French Army in the Argonne Forest where he was only 350 yards from the German line.

The following clipping from the Chronicle will express better than I can the scope of Mr. Bawn's address:-

In his opening remarks he dwelt on the situation in the early part of last July when the fortunes of the Allies were at their lowest ebb and declared that, though the French were not hopeful of the outcome and knew they were overmatched, the morale of the troops never weakened but they fought on with grim determination. He pictured to his audience the marvellous change in the French spirit after the glorious victory of our boys at Chateau-Thierry when for the first time the people felt sure of ultimate victory. While over there he lived at the front with the troops in the trenches, suffered with them the dangers and privations during the great German onslaught and left them only with the cessation of fighting.

He was fortunate in getting with his camera many intimate pictures of the trenches and trench life, of the wild, mountainous and desolate country of the great struggle, of the almost impassable jungle in which the "lost regiment" disappeared for four days, and of the wanton destruction by the Hun bombardment of poor little, unfortified villages inhabited mostly by women and children, giving his audience a panorama of the whole scene such as no mere words could do, although his graphic address greatly aided to the understanding of the pictures.

At the close it was the general opinion that it was one of the best evenings spent by the members.

The Club was greatly indebted to Superintendent of Schools Safford who provided from the High School the lantern and most kindly operated it during the evening.

During the evening the Secretary read to the members present a letter he had received, as Secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Committee, since coming to the hall, from Pho. E. Quinlan one of Reading's Naval force, written from Brest, France, that showed appreciation for all the service the citizens of Reading had rendered her men in service.

After a season of sociability the meeting adjourned.

After the usual excellent supper, President Loring called the meeting to order, and asked Mr. Harry L. Dane to tell the club the news about Kenneth Dane, and Mr. Dane told us Kenneth had just arrived from France in good health.

Pres. Loring then read the report of our Victory meeting of November 11th last, that was published in the Christian Register.

Mr. E. L. Hutchinson explained what the Ivanis Welcome Committee had planned for the meeting to be held in Security Hall, Feby. 23d at which Rev. Father Whalen of St. Agnes Church was to be the principal speaker.

Mr. A. W. Stockwell of our Club read a well thought out paper on future possible activities of the Club making the following points regarding the Church:

1. A codification of By-Laws:
2. Inventory of Resources, membership of church, Sunday School, societies, clubs, etc.
3. Card catalogue of members, and all members of families of the Parish
4. Reorganization of the societies of women.
5. Need of a Church Calendar.

This Club is a youngster and should have an ideal at which to aim, It is a typical Unitarian body composed of most of the leaders of the Town. Mr. Stockwell made the following working suggestions for the Club:

It should include all men in the Parish.
It should have a Committee on Sunday School, a committee on boys work; a committee on social activities, a music committee and a male chorus.
It should maintain intelligent connection with the American Unitarian Association;
It should conduct our church meeting a month.
It should have committees to investigate local town, affairs, state and national interests, keeping in touch with our local legislative and congressional representatives, having them address the Club.

After some favorable discussion of Mr. Stockwell's paper he was thanked for his able presentation.

Upon motion, Capt. C. H. C. Rhoades and Mr. Harry G. Porch were elected members.

Messrs. Wm. S. Cooper, Adelbert H. Carter and Edgar N. Hunt were appointed a nominating committee to propose officers for the coming year.

Rev. Mr. Haas, was presented as the next entertainer of the evening but before beginning his talk, presented Private Donald Underwood Hildreth, one of the first Reading men to go over there, and be permanently crippled by the loss of a leg, and his heroism was recognized by rising and applauding.

Mr. Ham then read one of his unique "Uncle Kinchin" stories and another successful club meeting was closed.

The first meeting of the Unitarian Laymens League, Chapter No. 81 of Reading, the successor of the Unitarian Mens Club was held in Unity Hall this evening.

Owing mainly to the fact that it was only two days before Christmas the attendance was small, about 25, but those who were absent missed one of the most enjoyable meetings of the Men's Club.

Caterer Myers served one of his excellent suppers that was highly praised by our guests of the evening.

Because of another engagement at the Union Club with the Ladymens League Mr. Lewis Parkhurst was not able to be with us, much to our regret.

Mr. Pres. Loring left that day for a brief Florida vacation and Dr. H. G. Waidlich kindly consented to preside for the evening.

The first speaker was Rev. Joel H. Metcalf, Pastor of the Unitarian Church at Winchester.

Mr. Metcalf served as Y. M. C. A. secretary for about a year during the war and spoke very entertainingly of his personal experiences in France, where he was at the front in Belleau Wood and the second battle of the Marne.

His narrative of modern warfare was told in a familiar and entertaining manner and brought vividly before his hearers some of the horrors and pathos of modern warfare as carried on with modern weapons, poison gas and the other awful engines of destruction. The story was lightened by many flashes of humor and tales of heroism on the part of "our boys" to whom the speaker paid a warm tribute for their bravery, patriotism and heroic standing of pain when wounded.

After the close of Mr Metcalf's talk a short recess was taken to clear the tables and upon again being called to order the following order of business for meeting of the League was adopted:-

1. Call to order.
2. Reading minutes of last meeting.
3. Reading of communications.
4. Reports of Committees.
5. Unfinished business.
6. New business.
7. Adjournment.

Upon the completion of this business, Edwin Day Sibley, Esq. a prominent lawyer of Boston, was presented as the second speaker of the evening.

Mr. Sibley put aside the supposed reserve of a member of the bar, and appeared to us as one of our best tellers of humorous stories. As he had a son in our army in France, he as a preamble to his main talk, strongly reinforced what Mr. Metcalf had said, and added an account of several personal experiences of his son while in the army service.

Then in an easy, unaffected way Mr. Sibley proceeded with his main subject of humor as manifested by the people of different nations.

His talk was illustrated by many stories of great humor and his hearers were nearly exhausted by their laughter at his steady stream of stories, showing his keen appreciation of the better class of humor.

Mr. Sibley proved to be a prince among men and added many friends to his already large list.

In the open meeting that followed Mr. Sibley Mr. A. Merrill Howes amused those present by several good stories and a most enjoyable meeting was closed.

Following Mr. Weston, Mr. Percy S. Brayton, Asst. Home Secretary at Unity House was introduced and spoke with interest & enthusiasm of the work of the Laymen's League and the Unitarian Campaign.

Prest. Wadlin reported that our church had exceeded its quota of $1000. for the Campaign.

Mr. Arthur L. Palmer, a young attorney from Omaha, Neb. was introduced and gave a very vivid account of his experiences as cow boy, sailor — in other western life. He said he thought he was the leader of the fifty five million to be reached by our Campaign, dating his interest from the time a few years since, when as a returning sailor he drifted into the Unitarian Church at Berkely, Calif. because of its outward attraction and found his church home.

An artistic exterior supported by a cordial homelike interior is a great power for good.

Enthusiasm was stirred by Mr. Palmer's talk and the men present entered heartily into the singing of a new chorale under Mr. Weston's lead.

The regular monthly meeting of our Chapter was held this evening in G.A.R. Hall, with 21 present.

A committee of the Unity Club branch of Women's Alliance served an excellent supper, after which the meeting was called to order by Pres. Wadlin.

In the absence of the Secretary through illness, Mr. Benj. W. Smith, was elected Secretary pro tem.

The President read a letter from the Greater Boston Joint Publicity Committee in reference to appropriation for advertising. On motion of Mr. C.A. Loring the matter was left to the discretion of the President.

Similar action was taken on requests from Tubercolis Committee and District Nursing Association.

Pres. Wadlin gave a short address on subject of religious controversy, deprecating the raising of worn out theological statements as arousing strife and preventing united action of the churches in matters of real account.

Mr. John E. Pember, of the staff of the Boston Herald was introduced and gave an interesting address on the making of the Sunday newspaper, scoring "Yellow Journalism" and defending the back of the Press from the criticisms often made, claiming newspapers as a whole wanted to print the truth and uphold those ideas of real value to the people. He spoke of the great care used in getting at the facts and said that the daily papers collected the news day by day and the Sunday papers elaborated and explained the meaning and application of the news so gathered.

A rising vote of thanks was extended and a social hour was spent until adjournment.

The monthly meeting of our Chapter was held in G. A. R. Hall this evening by postponement from the regular date of last week because of a public meeting of the Good Fellowship Club.

After an enjoyable supper provided by the Unity Club at which about 24 were present, we adjourned to the lower hall.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. N. Mansfield who acted as the Chairman of the evening, Pres. Wadlin being absent.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Secretary read a letter of thanks from our fellow-member Mr. Warren L. Fletcher for the Christmas gift from the Chapter.

On motion of Treas. Ruggles, the action of the President and Treas. in sending this gift to Mr. Fletcher was ratified by unanimous vote.

As the first speaker of the evening the chair introduced Mr. Eliot C. French, President of the Canton Chapter of the League.

Mr. French gave us an entertaining and instructive talk on the work done and meetings of his Chapter, with many bright and amusing stories, showing us that the Canton Chapter is much alive.

Mr. J. B. Stevens, of Boston, Secretary of the Unitarian membership campaign was next introduced and gave an interesting account of the progress made in that Campaign showing that a number of churches had already passed their proposed 25% gain and were still pushing ahead.

Mr. Stevens made three special points:
Loyalty to friends.
Loyalty to a cause.
Loyalty to your religion.

And impressed each point upon his hearers.

Mr. French, who is also connected with the business department of the Christian Register presented the cause of this publication and asked for its support and offered opportunity to procure many books in connection with it.

Mr. Stevens by request described the Candle-Light Service at Star Island.

Both speakers have been active in the work of the Y.P.R.U. and are strong incentives for our other young people to do active work for our church and religion.

After a standing vote of thanks to the speakers and the ladies for their supper, the meeting adjourned

The monthly meeting of our Chapter was held in Enterprise Hall tonight jointly with the Unity Club Branch of the Women's Alliance.

An excellent supper was furnished by a committee of the Unity Club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard F. Loring and was greatly enjoyed by about 140 members and friends.

In the absence of Pres. Wadlin, Mr. Arthur N. Mansfield acted as chairman for the evening.

The usual business meeting was omitted and after a season of sociability during the removal of dishes, Rev. Thos. Van Ness, pastor of the Second Unitarian Meeting House, Brookline, was presented as the speaker of the evening and interested us for an hour on the subject of "Germany behind the Scenes".

As Mr. Van Ness has visited Germany since the Armistice and is a keen observer and fine German scholar, he was thoroughly equipped and gave us a thrilling and informing insight into the conditions of that country. He showed that while it was the conquered in the late World War, it was now recovering from war's effects much faster than the victorious countries.

He showed clearly the characteristic brutality of German officialdom and also the power of the United States flag over such official outrage.

Mr. Van Ness told us of the great activity of the Krupp works at Essen, then employing over 50,000 workmen, and producing vast quantities of machinery of all kinds; of crowded hotels and the lavish expenditure of money, although there were many beggars, mostly wounded soldiers, who were now neglected and helpless.

Not closed with the hope for the return of the old time intelligent harmony with the Santa Claus and Christmas spirit of old.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Van Ness and to the ladies who provided the beautiful supper.

This was the time for our Annual Meeting.

An excellent supper was provided by Caterer Myers, after which the meeting was called to order by the Secretary, all other officers being absent, and Mr. Haw was elected Chairman of the meeting.

Hon. Frederick W. Cook, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, who was to be the speaker of the evening, was present but as there were only six members present, the address was not given and the time spent in social talk.

Notice was read of the Isle of Shoals S.S. meeting was read and Rev. Mr. Haw was named as one of our delegates.

Because of the small attendance the meeting was adjourned to Friday evening April 28 next.
